Under section 55(1)(b) of the Act, any person who furnishes the Authority with any information under or for the purposes of any other provision of the Act, shall use due care to secure that the document or information is not false in any material particular; and if he does not use due care in this behalf and the document or information is false in a material particular, he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding $125,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both; or in any other case, to a fine not exceeding $250,000.

SECTION II - DOCUMENTS TO BE SUBMITTED

The following documents are to be submitted along with this application.

- 1) A certified true copy of the licence issued by the insurance supervisory authority in your country for your company to carry on insurance business in your country¹.
- 2) A certified true copy of the letter from the insurance supervisory authority in your country granting your company approval to establish insurance operations in Singapore, if such approval is required. If approval is not required, a statement to this effect should be provided¹.
- 3) A copy of the annual report and financial statements of both the applicant and its ultimate parent company for each of the last three years.
- 4) A copy of the feasibility study conducted in respect of the proposed Singapore operations. Please include the following:
 - (i) financial projections for the proposed Singapore operations (e.g. revenue, profitability and start-up and development costs by business line, assets, capital, fund solvency margins and capital adequacy ratios for the next 3 years) and state the assumptions made; and
 - (ii) estimated timeline to incorporate the SPRV and execute the insurance securitisation transaction.
- 5) Actuarial investigation of underlying business, taking into account the financial projections provided above, to demonstrate that the SPRV is fully funded at all times in accordance with the requirements of the SPRV Regulations. The actuary performing the investigation should state in the report, his name and professional qualifications, and where the actuary is an employee of the applicant or its related company, the capacity in which he is carrying out the investigation, and that, to the best of the actuary's knowledge and experience, the set of scenarios and cashflow projections included in the investigation is a sufficient representation of all reasonably foreseeable scenarios and reliably demonstrates that the SPRV is fully funded at all times in accordance with the requirements of the SPRV Regulations.
- 6) A written opinion from an independent external legal counsel confirming the following:
 - (i) the SPRV is or will be a legal entity separate from any third party involved in its establishment;
 - (ii) the proposed legal documents/agreements of the SPRV governing the issuance of the insurance securitisation transaction set out in the application form, includes a condition that for any debt security issued or to be issued by

¹ This is not required if the applicant is licensed by the Authority.

- the SPRV, the holders of the debt securities undertake not to initiate or participate in winding up proceedings against the SPRV until the debt securities are discharged; and
- (iii) description of any other measures to enable the SPRV to remain solvent and thus not be petitioned into bankruptcy at all times.

Note: The name and professional qualifications of the legal counsel should be included in the opinion. A draft copy of the written opinion is acceptable at the point of application but the final signed copy should be submitted once the in-principal approval is given by the Authority for the establishment of the SPRV.

- 7) Constituent documents of the proposed Singapore operations which should include the permissible activities of the SPRV and any restrictions on such activities, such as the ability to enter into additional reinsurance contracts, issue or invest in additional securities, to borrow money or to make loans to other persons, and any provisions for the modification of the constituent documents of the relevant entity.
- 8) Draft copies of the following documents:
